

MOON RIDERS HALLOWEEN

Friday fright night cycle
through the streets of London
25 OCTOBER 2013

MOONRIDERS HALLOWEEN

MOONRIDERS: HALLOWEEN - 25 OCTOBER 2013

On a ride where all is not what it seems, things will start to stir on the haunted streets of London. The Highgate vampire, a barber on Fleet Street, and the supernatural goings-on amid the Tower of London - all come alive as riders pick up the pace. Style yourselves and your bike to fit to the theme, and you sample the delights we serve up from Hell's Kitchen throughout the event!

This certainly won't be a Friday Fright Night you'll forget in a hurry...

WHAT TO EXPECT

Setting off from 'The Crypt' - Dracula's subterranean lair - handily located near Waterloo - join hundreds of fellow cyclits in fancy dress on a spooky 50 mile ride across the city. With themed rest stops, vampire mechanics and zombie marshals, follow the blood trail across London from east to west, past some infamous horror spots - stopping en route to enjoy our horrifying hospitality and some of the best hot food that Hell's Kitchen can serve up on this fully supported, all inclusive scary Moonride.
